Admiral Group named as one of Europe's Best Workplaces

09 Oct 2025

Admiral Group plc has been named as one of Europe's Best Workplaces in a list published by Great Place To Work® and Fortune Europe.

Admiral Group, which has offices in the UK, France, Italy, Spain and the US, is ranked 15th Best Workplace in Europe, with 94 per cent of colleagues believing that Admiral is a friendly place to work which puts people at its core. This is the twenty-second time the organisation has made the list.

Zareena Brown, Group Chief People Officer, "I'm incredibly proud that we have been recognised as one of the Best Workplaces in Europe. This achievement reflects our leadership team's commitment to fostering an inclusive, supportive culture where every colleague can thrive, contribute, and feel valued. It's a true testament to the spirit of our people and the importance we place on being able to attract the talent we need to deliver for our customers."

Organisations included on the list are assessed on their efforts to create generous, supportive, high-performance work experiences for all colleagues. To select companies for the list, Great Place To Work surveyed more than 1.5 million employees across the region, representing the experiences of more than 2.7 million European workers.

Current vacancies at Admiral Group can be found here: Our people | Admiral Group Plc