

Our brands

ADMIRAL

The Group's first brand, set up in 1993 – mainly targeting those who traditionally pay higher than average premiums, including drivers under-35 and those living in big cities. www.admiral.com

Bell was set up in 1997 – its main target market being drivers with zero or low no claims bonus. www.bell.co.uk

Confused.com is an intelligent, automated car insurance shopper. Customers input their details once, and receive quotes from major car insurance websites. www.confused.com

Diamond was created for women in response to a need in the market place for insurance specifically for young women drivers, which is not only good value, but also as hassle free as possible. www.diamond.co.uk elephant.co.uk is the Group's main online car insurance service. Elephant passes on cost savings generated by being an online brand to customers in the form of lower premiums. www.elephant.co.uk

Gladiator Commercial is the Group's commercial vehicle insurance broker that was launched in April 1998. The company acts on behalf of several of the largest commercial vehicle insurers in the UK. www.gladiator.com

www.admiralgroup.co.uk