

Admiral Insurance Gibraltar is Admiral Group's largest insurance entity by premium written, underwriting motor, household, travel and other lines of UK business. Our CEO Will Moulder and COO Lisa Casemore welcomed the Minister for Justice, Trade and Industry, Nigel Feetham, to our offices. Nigel met the growing team who shared how they are being supported to grow in their role and develop new skills and gain professional qualifications.

Will and Lisa spoke with Nigel about the UK business' evolution from a motor insurer to a leading provider of personal lines insurance serving 9.3 million customers and the Group's commitment to Gibraltar. Lisa outlined the role that we want to play in attracting talent into the industry, highlighting the diverse roles and opportunities that insurance can provide. Will explained the importance of good governance for delivering good outcomes for customers and how we are using AI to maintain our competitive pricing.
